

Livestock

General Livestock Rules

Rules in this section must be followed by all livestock exhibitors.

Chairman: Shane Staples

(573)259-7405

1. All entries and fees must be received by June 15th.
2. All classes will be final at 10 am Thursday of the fair. No changes may be made after this.
3. Open entries will be charged a pen fee.
4. Animals must be owned by the exhibitor for at least 60 days prior to the fair.
5. Exhibitors must be at least 5 years old as of January 1st of the current year (including open exhibitors).
6. All open livestock must be on the fairgrounds by 4pm Wednesday and must remain on the grounds until 8pm Saturday. Failure to abide by these rules will forfeit any premiums or awards.
7. Exhibitors are REQUIRED to keep their pens, stalls, and animals clean and orderly throughout the duration of the fair.
8. All livestock must be groomed for show.
9. ALL participants will take proper care of their animals while on the fairgrounds. To include: frequent watering, animals must be fed and both the animal and their pen/stall must be kept CLEAN. Any participant abusing this rule will be asked to remove their animals immediately from the grounds.
10. All livestock entries are made at the risk of the owner. The Crawford County Fairboard will NOT be responsible for accidents caused by livestock or to livestock.
11. The injection of any substance or drug, or the external application of any substance which could affect the animal's performance or alter its natural contour, conformation or appearance is prohibited.

12. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed in the barns at any time. Failure to comply with this rule will be cause for dismissal from the fairgrounds, and all entry fees and premiums will be forfeited.
13. Space in the barns will be allocated to animals first. Exhibitor's show boxes, chairs, etc. are secondary.
14. Barns will be closed to all persons except exhibitors at 11pm each night of the fair.
15. All 4-H/FFA groups with exhibitors sleeping in the barns should have one adult stay with the exhibitors.
16. Any livestock deemed unruly or unfit for exhibition may be asked to leave the fairgrounds at the discretion of the species chairmen/livestock superintendent.
17. Health papers will be required for Sheep and Goats at the fair. Sheep and Goats must be identified with an official scrapies tag and listed on a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (health paper). Papers may be shown at barn clean-up on Sunday before the Fair, but do not need to be turned into chairmen, health papers are the property of the exhibitor, only to be shown to chairmen to prove healthy status. Health papers should be shown prior to unloading animals.
18. All livestock must meet the Animal Health Requirements for Exhibition. These rules can be found on the Missouri Department of Ag website.
19. The livestock superintendent has the authority to release and send home any animals showing evidence of ill health or unfit condition.

Livestock Exhibitor Camping

20. Camping is limited to livestock exhibitors and chairmen only.
21. Camping reservations must accompany entries and be submitted no later than June 15th. Hand-delivered forms will not be accepted.
22. No campers, trailers, etc. will be allowed on the fairgrounds before 11am the Sunday prior to the fair.
23. No campers may be unhooked until you receive your camping tag.
24. Tag MUST be attached to the camper so it is visible from the road.
25. Until all campers are parked and settled, no awnings may be set up.
26. Campers should park in the same spot they did the year before. New campers must wait to park until previous campers have parked.
27. All exhibitor families must volunteer for a timeslot to work the back gate. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of their camping spot the following year.
28. Quiet hours will be observed after 11PM each night.
29. Failure to abide by camping rules may result in expulsion from the fair, or other consequences deemed necessary by the fairboard.

Market Animals

The following rules apply to all market animals. These include Market Steers, Hogs, Lambs, and Goats, Meat pens of Rabbits and Chickens.

30. All market animals are to be owned and exhibited by youth residing in Crawford County and who are active members in good standing of a 4-H Club or FFA Chapter within Crawford County.
31. Market Animal exhibitors must not be over the age of 20 as of January 1 of the current year.
32. Market animals must be cared for within Crawford County by the exhibitor. The Livestock Committee must be notified of any extenuating circumstances prior to initial weigh-in and will be addressed on a case by case basis.

33. Exhibitors that have shown and sold a market animal at another fair are not eligible to show and sell market animals at the Crawford County Fair.
34. The use of tranquilizers given to animals by exhibitors is strictly prohibited. All medications and feed additives must be used according to the manufacturer's directions with proper withdrawal time before slaughter.
35. No re-weighs will be allowed for any exhibitor at both initial and final weigh-ins. NO SCALES ARE ALLOWED ON THE FAIRGROUNDS.
36. Animals weighing over maximum limits will be allowed to show and sell, but will not be eligible for on-foot or overall awards. The rate of gain competition will stop at the maximum weight allowable. The maximum weights are as follows: Hogs - 300 lbs, Lambs - 140 lbs, Goats - 120 lbs.
37. Animals not reaching the minimum weight requirements will be allowed to stay on the fairgrounds, but will not show or sell. The minimum weights are as follows: Steers – 1000 lb, Hogs – 225 lb, Lambs – 95 lb, Goats – 45 lb.
38. A project record must be turned in by each exhibitor showing and selling a market animal. Project records should be turned in to the species chairman the Sunday prior to the fair at the barn clean-up.
39. If one is planned, exhibitors must attend one barn work-day other than the pre-fair (Sunday before) clean-up.
40. It is mandatory that all exhibitor families work a time slot at the back gate.
41. Stalls will be assigned by chairmen, and clubs/chapters will stall together.
42. Each exhibitor should display a sign with all appropriate information. This includes their name, club name, beginning weight, ending weight, and average daily gain.

43. Exhibitors may show more than one market animal species. Exhibitors must notify the species chairman of which animal they will be selling following the Market Steer Show, or prior to.
44. Grand and Reserve Champion animals must be sold in the livestock auction. Exhibitors of Grand or Reserve Champion animals may choose to sell one other animal they have exhibited. If an exhibitor has more than one champion within the same species, it will be at the discretion of the livestock committee and the exhibitor as to which animals will sell. Champion animals that MUST sell are as follows:
 - Market Steer Grand Champion On-Foot
 - Market Steer Reserve Champion On-Foot
 - Market Steer Grand Champion Rate-of-Gain
 - Market Steer Reserve Champion Rate-of-Gain
 - Market Hog Grand Champion Overall
 - Market Hog Reserve Champion Overall
 - Market Hog Grand Champion On-Foot
 - Market Hog Reserve Champion On-Foot
 - Market Hog Grand Champion Carcass
 - Market Hog Reserve Champion Carcass
 - Market Hog Grand Champion Rate-of-Gain

 - Market Lamb Reserve Champion On-Foot
 - Market Lamb Grand Champion Rate-of-Gain
 - Market Lamb Reserve Champion Rate-of-Gain
 - Market Goat Grand Champion On-Foot
 - Market Goat Reserve Champion On-Foot
 - Market Goat Grand Champion Rate-of-Gain
 - Market Goat Reserve Champion Rate-of-Gain
 - Grand Champion Meat Pen of Rabbits
 - Reserve Champion Meat Pen of Rabbits
 - Grand Champion Meat Pen of Chickens
 - Reserve Champion Meat Pen of Chickens
45. Exhibitors who wish to take their animals to the Missouri State Fair must notify their species chairman following their respective show. This way each State Fair animal can be marked as such in the sale booklet.

46. State fair animals must be removed from the barns by 8pm Saturday.
47. Market steers, lambs, and goats sold in the livestock auction will be eligible for an “on-the-rail” carcass competition. The carcass competition will be conducted at the locker plant and not via ultrasound. It will be up to the exhibitor to ensure that their buyer is ok with their animal being judged in the carcass competition.

Livestock Auction

48. Buyers are invited to attend a luncheon at Noon on Saturday of the Fair, the auction will follow promptly at 1pm.
49. Exhibitors should be available in the barns with their animals prior to the auction to greet buyers.
50. Each exhibitor selling an animal in the auction must pay a $10 fee to cover the costs of the buyers’ luncheon and auction. The fee is to be paid per lot, so if an exhibitor is eligible to sell more than one lot in the auction, they must pay a fee for each.
51. Livestock auction buyers and supporters must always be treated with the utmost respect. If an exhibitor and/or exhibitor’s family violates this rule, the exhibitor will be suspended for one year from exhibiting market animals at the Crawford County Fair. If the rule is violated a second time, the exhibitor will then be banned from ever exhibiting market animals at the Crawford County Fair in the future.
52. Exhibitors are not to interfere while the cashiers are working with buyers.
53. Locker plants will not be allowed to load animals out of the barns until 6AM Sunday. Exhibitors must be present to load out their animals.
