Vendor Contract

Welcome to the 76th Annual Crawford County Fair! The theme this year is “Tickets to Fairadise” We are gearing up for a great week of main stage musical entertainment, arena events including bull riding, truck & tractor pulls, and more! Carnival rides will be running all week and included with your admission Wednesday-Saturday. We are anticipating a fantastic event, so please send in your contract early to ensure your participation at this year’s fair! Vendors returning their contracts by May 1, 2023 (with paid fees) will be assured of getting their same space as last year. Vendors wishing to purchase an ad for the fairbook, see attached information. Must be returned by April 1 to meet printing deadlines.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Crawford County Fair is a FAMILY EVENT, and vendors should plan their merchandise mix with that in mind. If any merchandise is found to be objectionable to a family audience, vendors will be asked to remove their articles.

TERMINATION RIGHTS

The CCFI, through its Concessions Committee, reserves the right to exclude any item or vendor. Termination of operation of any vendor may occur at any time during the fair if items sold or displayed are not of the highest quality as determined by CCFI. NO REFUNDS WILL BE GIVEN. Also CCFI reserves the right to terminate this agreement at any time if the vendor, in the judgment of CCFI, commits any detrimental to the purpose of the fair, fails to cooperate with the representatives of CCFI or breaches any of its agreements herein. No refunds will be given if concessionaire decides to leave early for any reason.

PREMISES

Vendor warrants that the premises shall be left in as good condition as the vendor found them; this includes picking up and disposal of trash at and around your booth.

HOURS

All concessions shall be open for business and staffed during the entire time the fair is open to the public. No business shall be conducted in any place other than your assigned booth space. The hours are as follows:
