Rules and Qualifications:

- Contestants MUST reside in Crawford County
- Anyone holding a current National or State pageant title is ineligible to compete.
- 2023 "Miss" Title holders are encouraged to ride in the fair parade and return to help with the pageant and crown their new successor. 2023 "Miss" Title holders are ineligible to compete in the pageant the following year, for the same title.
- 2023 "Miss" Title holders will reign over the 2023 fair and must be available to assist the fair board with activities as needed.
- 2023 "Miss" Title holders may be asked to make personal appearances and/or help volunteer for various events in and around the county throughout the year of their reign.
- Conduct that is found to be improper and detrimental to the Crawford County Youth Pageant and the Crawford County Fair Board will be reasons for dismissal and/or disqualification
- Those who are pregnant, have been pregnant, or cohabitate with someone of the opposite sex in lieu of a marriage contract are ineligible to participate.
- The winner automatically relinquishes her title if she enters into a marriage contract, chooses to cohabitate with a male in lieu of a marriage contract, or becomes pregnant.
- If the winner fails to complete their term, the title will be passed to the runner-up in the order of their rank, beginning with the first runner-up.
- Any additional awards given will be at the discretion of the pageant director.
- All Judges' decisions are final and will be backed by the Fair Board.
- Have Fun and enjoy the Fair!
